

14 September 1973

Dear General Walters,

With regard to your kind offer to make a gesture on behalf of the young man who has been helpful to us here during your visits to London, he has thought it over and now tells me he would be grateful for a letter from you to the Ambassador.

Cordially.

25X1

Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence